FUND DRIVE

Because we have strong partnerships with grocery stores, farms, and local food distributors, we're able to get food in bulk at a lower rate. And, as a non-profit, we don't pay taxes on these food purchases. It also allows us to support and reinvest in the community by supporting local businesses, like local farms to buy fresh food for Fresh Food Distributions.

A gift of $5 enables us to buy enough food to provide 30 meals! When you host a fund drive, we provide a QR code and link where your team can give and track your impact in real-time.

FOOD DRIVE

We receive the majority of our food in bulk quantities of similar items so each of the thousands of families we feed receives a comparable package.

Host a one-item food drive to provide non-perishable items to South Michigan families!

A few options (choose one) —

- Peanut butter & jelly
- Canned meat (tuna, chicken, etc.)
- Cereal

South Michigan Food Bank's Fresh Food Distributions

We partner with 100 sites across our eight counties dedicated to providing fresh food products. Our volunteers package about 3,500 fresh boxes each week, which our drivers deliver to communities across South Michigan. Each site provides around 20 pounds of fresh foods to about 150 families and individuals every month. Some of the items packed in these boxes include fresh fruits and vegetables, cheese, milk, and eggs.
